Notes to applicants

Here to help

Do you manage, or are you part of, a geographically dispersed team?

Do you want to organise an activity to build team spirit and promote wellbeing?

Did you know that HASSRA can give you funding?

The HASSRA Business Unit Grant is here to help fund activities to drive up engagement with HASSRA members and potential new members in geographically dispersed teams and Business Units.

Things you need to know before applying

To qualify for a Business Unit Grant you must:

- Be a current HASSRA member.
- Be part of a geographically dispersed team, i.e. you have staff located in various locations which meets virtually over Microsoft Teams.
- Be able to fully describe the details of the specific activity you would like funding for.
- Be able to outline the costs you require help with.
- Understand that all staff in the Business Unit, HASSRA members and non-members, can take part in your activity but you must be able to demonstrate how you will promote wellbeing and HASSRA.
- Understand that if a grant is awarded, you will need to provide details of payments to be issued and to whom and provide receipts/invoices as appropriate. [Please note that for governance reasons, a grant cannot be issued to one individual for onward re-distribution to one or more recipients].

Important information to applicants

- If your application is successful, we will contact you to say how much you have been awarded and request details of payments to be issued. HASSRA will then issue payments by BACS to recipients as appropriate.
- Please note that a BACS payment cannot be issued to one individual for onward re-distribution to one or more recipients.
- If funding is for goods/services, you will be requested to provide HASSRA with invoices, which HASSRA will pay directly to suppliers by BACS.
- If you are unable to supply HASSRA with invoices, you may pay for goods/services personally and be reimbursed from HASSRA upon production of a receipt(s).
- Payments to individual members of staff will be issued separately to the intended recipients. e.g. Prize winners will each be paid separately by BACS.
- If requested, funding may be awarded in the form of tickets from HASSRA's online shop.
